

YOU ARE INVITED

You are most cordially invited to view the very large assortment of interesting wearing apparel that now is ready at this store. This opening is conspicuous for its absence of music and flowers and the presence of "genuine value-giving" in every department.

HOMER FITTS

Educator Shoes!

For Misses and Children!

Many Children's Shoes force the pliable, growing bones and muscles of the feet into unnatural shapes.

Educators correct this fault by being built on nature-shaped lasts, which give the foot perfect freedom, at the same time giving it the proper support.

The oak soles provide lightness, flexibility and wear, while the upper leathers are the highest grade.

We have incorporated some original and exclusive patterns in our Educators this Spring, with the result that they are better than ever, both in appearance and wear.

A regular meeting of Hearts of Oak Lodge, No. 474, Order Sons of St. George will be held in Foresters' hall at 7.30 p. m., Tuesday, April 17th.

The date of Spaulding high school's first base ball game of the season is April 27 with Northfield high school instead of April 17 as stated in Saturday's paper.

Clarence F. Worthen arrived home from the Harvard Medical school Saturday night to spend the Easter vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthen.

Another Northern League ball player to find himself in faster company this year is Doerscher who last year was with the Rutland team. Doerscher pitched on Saturday for Brooklyn and lost a close game to Boston, although he allowed but five hits.

A peculiar case of forcing the season is reported, from the John Jones' farm. Mr. Jones has a spring on his farm which was visited by one of his men Saturday and much to the man's surprise was alive with pollywogs, and as large as the end of one's thumb. Mr. Jones says the spring is located in a sunny place, but not especially warm, and this is the first instance in his knowledge of pollywogs so early in the season.

An Old-Fashioned Boiled Dinner

How long has it been since you have had a genuine old Vermont Boiled Dinner? Some time, probably. Well, if you want one of the regular old farm kind, you just come to our market and get some of our Corned Beef. It tastes just like the good old home-made kind. We can also furnish you with Cabbage, Turnips and Beets that were taken from a real garden and which are just prime.

The Home Merchant.

The following clippings are from an Ohio paper:

Editor News: Sir: The following, which speaks for itself, I wish all the readers of the News to consider:

Who sympathized with you when your children were sick?

Was it Sears and Roebuck?

Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money?

Was it Montgomery, Ward and Company? Or was it your home merchant?

When you want to raise money for the church or for some needy person in town do you write to the Fair store in Chicago, or do you go to your home merchant?

How much does Siegel, Cooper and Company give towards keeping up our sidewalks or paying the minister's salary?

When you are sick, how many nights did Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett and Company sit up with you?

When your loved one was buried, was it your home merchant who dropped the tear of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it Marshall Field and Company?

Patronize your home merchants and your home newspaper. A FAIRMER.

Editor Daily News:

Sir: I noticed the article by Mr. Farmer in last night's News and want to register my kick right here on catalogue houses and their pernicious, misleading and false methods. I am unable to acknowledge that I have been duped, and duped to perfection. The only difference between me and other victims being that I am a little deeper in and that I am willing to acknowledge the error.

To begin with, last fall I, with my wife, who is now my wife, decided to purchase some "cat" stuff to furnish our new home. Accordingly we ordered all our furnishings of a Chicago "cat" house, two weeks prior to our marriage, which we thought would plenty of time to get the goods around. But by the infernal planets let me tell you right here that all the correspondences, diplomacy, appealing and pleading has succeeded in landing only a kitchen table and later a mirror. The table from Wisconsin and the mirror from Pittsburgh. My wife tells me I had ought to be thankful for these, for we no longer have to eat our meals on a dry goods box and I can look in the mirror and see what fools look like.

Our honeymoon has been a very dramatic experience: cooking on an old gas plate, eating on a dry goods box, sleeping on the floor, and borrowing a few necessary utensils of friends and neighbors. No more catalogue goods for us. We hope to get enough more goods by April 1st to celebrate all fools day in a fitting manner.

A VICTIM.

ON THE EAST SIDE.

Some mornin' youse gits outer bed About dis time o' day An' can't git trough yer dopey head W'at makes youse feel so queer, De sun it shines unusual bright, A-floodin' all de street; Feels like it rained champagne all night, De air's so fresh an' sweet, An' wen yer startin' out ter walk Yer feet flies up an' down As if dey hote yuz made o' cork— It's spring cum inter town.

De sun climbs up an' glows an' glows An' makes youse sweat an' sweat; Youse want shake yer winter clo'es, But desent do it yet, An' wen de air gits up an' warms An' heats t'ings up ter fars An' beats t'ings up ter swarms Down in der public square; An' jist as long as sunbeams shine Dey'll hold dem benches down, An' dat's about de surest sign Dat spring's cum inter town. —Catholic Standard.
